I'm working on an initiative to encourage people to save water. The drought in the Southwest is severe but it's difficult for people to change their behavior. With a fun and catchy way to remind people, they'll start to implement these simple things they can do every day.

Also, I'm a big fan of Heal the Bay and I'm on the host committee of the WestEdge Design Fair's Opening Night Party to benefit Heal the Bay.
