Art + Tech: Stan Douglas and Michael Govan in Conversation

Join artist Stan Douglas and LACMA CEO and Wallis Annenberg Director Michael Govan as they discuss Douglas's innovative hybrid of cinema and theater, Helen Lawrence.

Conceived and directed by Douglas, this film noir is produced in real time as actors on a stage are composited live into virtual sets of Vancouver circa 1948. In this conversation, Govan and Douglas will talk about the making of Helen Lawrence, and the role of history, narrative, and temporal and spatial displacements in the artist's practice. Free; tickets required.

When: Tuesday, October 17, 2017, 7pm

Where: LACMA
